

IT Policy Document

Device Usage

Company-issued laptops must be used for official work only. Personal devices are not permitted for accessing company resources unless approved by IT.

Network Security

All employees must connect via the corporate VPN when accessing internal systems remotely.

Data Privacy

Employee data may be shared with external auditors for compliance checks, subject to approval from the IT Security team.